New York, Oct.19.—The Times' Washington special says:
The members of the Board of Corporators of the National Military and Naval Asylma, for the relief of the totally disabled officers and men of the volunteer forces of the United States, met to-day at the Smithsonian Institute, when it was again found that there was not a quoram, only twenty-two persons responding to their manes, whereas it needs fifty-one to constitute a quoram of the one hundred members.
On motion of Surgeon General Barnes, Secretary Stanton was chosen chair-

General Barnes then said that in addition to those present, he had heard from twenty-nine other corporators, all declining to attend, among whom were two deaths, and one declination, Resolved, That the board of missions respectfully request the general convention to consider the propriety of passing an enabling camon to include, First, a provision by which parishes formed in foreign lunds under the eare of missionary or clergy of this Church may, in certain cases, unite in dioceses under the general principles of the existing canon; Second, a provision that no diocese be so formed without the consent of any missionary bishop in whose jurisdiction such dioceses may have been included; Third, a provision that such a diocese, when duly and catsonically formed, may place itself under specialists. from twenty-nine other corporators, all declining to attend, among whom were two deaths, and one declination, viz.: W. B. Astor.

General Butler then addressed the meeting, alluding to the two former attempts at obtaining a quorum, and suggesting propositions for action. It was impolitie, under the circumstances, he thought, to adjourn over, waiting for the arrival of other members, and he thereforesubmitted a resolution, which, after setting forth the impracticability of assembling a legal number of corporators, recommends that the meeting proceed to a provisional organization, and that a committee of seven he appointed to a provisional organization, and that a committee of seven he appointed to memoralize Congress to legalize such legislation by reducing the number of corporators so that the project can be carried out according to the design of the act.

This was supported by Chief Justice Chase, who suggested that the resolution be amended by adding that this committee proceed to make by-laws, rules and regulations, and submit the same to an adjourned meeting of the corporators, to be held subsequent to the action of Congress proposed to be asked for on this subject. Adopted.

Hon, E. S. Tobey submitted a resolution requiring the committee thus appointed to memorial Congress for a stated appropriation in aid of the work, instead of relying on the charity of the public. It would be proved that the work could not be commenced until $500,000 had been subscribed and paid. Gen.
